

RAPHAEL A. MOISSIS

A BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE

Born in Thessaloniki, Greece, he went to high school at Athens College. He studied Mechanical Engineering at the University of Manchester, England, where he received a First Class Honour B.Sc. and then at MIT where he obtained his Master and Doctor of Science degrees.

He is now President of the National Energy Strategy Council, an advisory body to the Hellenic Ministry of Development. In addition to this position, he serves as Deputy Chairman of the Foundation of Economic and Industrial Research (IOBE), as Deputy Chairman of College Year in Athens and as member of the Board of S&B Industrial Minerals S.A. He is also Honorary Chairman of the Board of ALFA-BETA VASSILOPOULOS S.A.

He started his professional career as Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering at MIT and then, after a period in Greek Industry, moved on to the positions of Executive Secretary to the National Energy Council in the Ministry of Coordination, Deputy Governor of the Hellenic Industrial Development Bank (ETBA), Governor of the Public Power Corporation (DEH), President of ATTIKO METRO S.A. and Chairman and Managing Director of the Public Gas Corporation (DEPA).

In the past, he had served on the Board of the MIT Club of Greece (first President), the Board of Athens College (Secretary and Treasurer), the Center for Political Research and Training (KPEE), the Federation of Greek Industries (Member of the Board of Directors and Executive Council), the Food Bank Foundation (Treasurer and Secretary) the Organization and Administration Unit (M.O.D.) S.A., the Aspis Bank and others.

He has two sons, both graduates of Athens College and M.I.T.

In 1982 he was named Officer of the Legion of Honour by the President of the Republic of France and in 2008 Commander to the Order of the Crown of the Kingdom of Belgium.

Athens, May 2009